

Retreat Leaders:

Susan Rush served as the founding coordinator of Contemplative Outreach of New Mexico, where she resides and remains active in the chapter. In addition, Susan has had a career working in non-profit health care for 40 years. Her clinical pastoral education assists her in supporting others through spiritual inquiry. As a spiritual director and retreat facilitator, she enjoys companioning with others in their search for the Holy.

Susan Komis served as coordinator for the St. Louis, MO chapter where she currently resides. She is a former director of Contemplative Outreach Programs & Services (CPS) where she served CO leadership developing and offering formations, retreats and leadership enrichment. Susan is a Pastoral Minister and continues to support individuals and groups in the contemplative dimension of the spiritual journey.

Kess Frey resides in Anchorage, Alaska, and serves as coordinator of Contemplative Outreach of Anchorage and offers workshops and presentations on Centering Prayer and contemplative spirituality. Kess has authored five books, the most recent entitled "The Will of Divine Love: Centering Prayer & Spiritual Psychology" and "Bridge Over Troubled Waters." He is also active in prison ministry. Kess is part of a new generation of thinkers and meditators pondering the wealth of contemplative Prayer in relation to various spiritual traditions.

Deepening the Contemplative Dimension of Servant Leadership

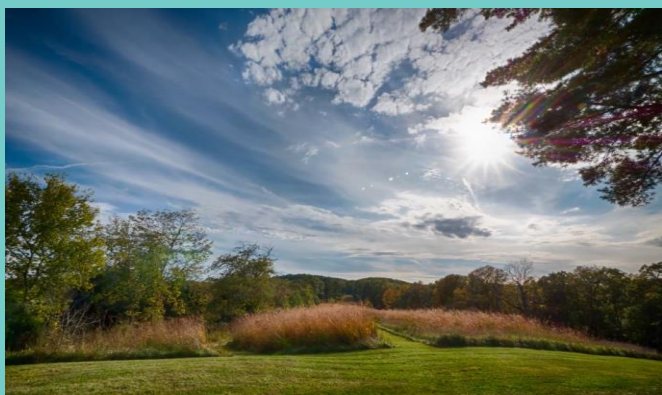

"A Formation-Conference fostering the integrity of loving service and its relationship to Contemplative Service."

June 24 –30, 2018

Marianist Retreat Center

St. Louis, Missouri

What is authentic service?
What is Servant Leadership?
Whom are we serving?

Be still here:

This retreat will take place at the Marianist Retreat and Conference Center (pictured on the left), 4000 HW 109, Eureka, MO. The center is located 30 minutes from downtown St. Louis, 45 minutes from the airport, on 120 acres adjacent to the Meramec River and features miles of forest trails, cliffs, streams, a grotto, labyrinth, meadows and a sculpture garden. For more information on MRCC go to:

www.mretreat.org

A desire to serve:

This Retreat is offered to those who are providing service to Contemplative Outreach as chapter coordinators, contact persons, leadership team members, commissioned presenters, retreat leaders, prayer group members and facilitators, and to those who have served in the past or desire to serve in the future.

A unique opportunity:

The Retreat provides a unique opportunity to deeply reflect on the nature and essence of Servant Leadership, explore the impact of Centering Prayer which gently cultivates an interior call to service, and a movement to the contemplative dimension of spirituality, leadership and service.

Topics to be explored:

In community, we will explore such topics as:

- The Ten Dispositions of Spiritual Leadership (by Fr. Thomas Keating)
- Centering Prayer & Humility; Three Grades of Love
- The Posture of Empty-ness
- A Journey of Servant Leadership
- Members of a Holy Priesthood
- The Gift of Oneness
- Archetypes of the Servant Leader
- What is Transformation?
- The Mystery of Transmission

Periods of Centering Prayer, silence, chant, wisdom circles and a hermit day are included in the program.
